Dear Principal or Guidance Counselor,

We are pleased to announce the 2010-2011 Comcast Leaders and Achievers® Scholarship Program. This Program, for the Comcast Foundation, recognizes high school seniors from Comcast communities for their commitment to community academics, and demonstrated leadership. To acknowledge these accomplishments, recipients of the award will receive grant of $1,000. You may nominate only one senior from your high school to apply for this award.

Requirements:

- Full-time high school senior currently enrolled at a high school within a Comcast Community.
- Student grade point average of 2.8 or higher.
- Demonstrate leadership abilities in school activities or through work experiences.
- Strong commitment to and involvement in community service.
- Plan to attend an accredited, nonprofit college, university, or vocational/technical school in the United States.
- Be able to verify nomination by entering the Comcast School Code (CSC), provided by the principal or guidance
- Complete and approve the terms and conditions set forth in the media release included as part of the scholarship form. If the nominee is not over the age of eighteen, the parent/guardian must complete and approve the terms set forth in the media release included as part of the scholarship acceptance form.

Employees of Comcast, its subsidiaries and affiliates, and the children and other family members of Comcast employee: employees of Comcast's subsidiaries and affiliates are not eligible.

Principal/Guidance Counselor Instructions:

- Please review the requirements above and select the best nominee to represent your school.
- Nominate only one senior. Multiple applicants will result in disqualification of all entries from your school.
- Please provide the "Nominee Letter," to your nominee (Click here to download the Nominee Letter).
- You must verify this nomination online after the student completes the online application. The student will provide instructions for the Online Nomination Certification.
- Follow up with your nominee to ensure the nomination process is complete and all required documents are post December 11, 2009. Incomplete or late applications will be disqualified.
- If a student does not have access to a computer, email Comcast@applylists.com for a hard copy form.
- Do not distribute this communication; however, it is recommended that you keep a copy for your records.

- The Comcast School Code (CSC) you are to provide to your nominee is accessible via <http://cmcstcsc.app>. Comcast School Code website is for exclusive use by school administrators and should not be accessed by students.

Please note that the Comcast Leaders and Achievers® Scholarship Program is independently administered by International Scholarship and Tuition Services, Inc (ISTS). Should you have any questions or need further information, please contact ISTS at (800) 855-8555 or by e-mail at Comcast@applyists.com.

Sincerely,

Fred J. Maahs, Jr.

The Leaders and Achievers Scholarships are one-time awards in the amount of $1,000 for use towards college costs and expenses. Scholarship awards are not based on financial need. To be eligible to apply for and receive a scholarship, a student must be a full-time high school senior at the time of application; must have a strong commitment to community service; must display leadership abilities in school activities or through work experience; must have a grade point average of 2.5 or higher at the time of application; must attend a high school in a community served by Comcast; and the student must, and if the student is under the age of eighteen, the student's guardian must complete and approve the terms and conditions set forth in the media release included as part of the scholarship acceptance form. Awards are given to students regardless of race, color, creed, religion, disability or national origin. Children and other family members of Comcast employees and employees of Comcast's subsidiaries are not eligible. The number of scholarships awarded each year varies and is determined in the sole discretion of Comcast. If the number of scholarship applicants exceeds the number of available scholarships in a given year, scholarships will be awarded to approved recipients (those that meet all requirements, including all deadlines) in the sole discretion of Comcast.

The program is administered by International Scholarship and Tuition Services, Inc. ("ISTS"), an independent firm that specializes in managing sponsored scholarship programs. The Comcast Foundation reserves the right to interpret and review the terms, conditions and procedures of this scholarship program and to make changes at any time without notice. By applying, applicants agree that Comcast will have no liability for any of its acts or omissions in operating the program, including any errors or omissions of ISTS.
